

FOOD ALLERGY SUPPORT TEAM
Tackling Food Allergies Together

Food Allergy Support Team

PO Box 93, Riverton, UT 84065

Website: fastoit.org

FAST Data Collection Support Mini-Grants

FAST mini-grants are designed to support the implementation of an Allergen Immunotherapy Data Collection Program by allergy practices. $2,500 mini-grants may be used to support process development or data input within allergy practices performing Allergen Immunotherapy.

Practice Name:

Practice Location:

Lead Food Allergen Immunotherapy Physician:

Number of patients treated: _____ Is this a rough estimate? _____ Compiled count? _____

Food AIT treatment visits are captured in an EMR Yes _____ No EMR record _____

AIT-related data is entered in the EMR as structured data Yes _____ No _____

Can you extract a list of AIT patients from your EMR? Yes _____ No _____

Do you currently collect AIT-related data in a spreadsheet or database? Yes _____ No _____

Food AIT visit data is recorded on paper and stored on paper or scanned into an EMR _____

How will the mini-grant be used?

Email the application and a W-9 to drnichwasserman@gmail.com by December 1, 2026. Grants will be awarded January 15, 2027.